DATE/TIME OF INCIDENT:	01/22/07	8:22 AM
DATE/TIME OF RELEASE:	01/22/07	10:50 AM
NATURE OF STORY:	EVACUATION
LOCATION:	Lane County Public Service Building 125 E. 8 th Eugene

DETAILS:

At approximately 8:22AM this morning a bomb threat was called into the Lane County Public Service Building. The caller was identified to be male, and stated the building would "go boom in 30 minutes".

The County employee taking the phone call initiated protocols involving a bomb threat. The employee attempted to gain information from the caller.

The Public Service Building was evacuated. Existing protocols for evacuating this building were set in motion. Eugene Police Department responded and assisted the Lane County Sheriff's Office with a search of the building.

Shortly before 9:00AM the building was cleared by officials and reopened.
